

COMEDY PROJECT: GROUP ASSESSMENT

Date:

Group Members:

How did each member of your group contribute to the project (visual work, written work, ideas, performance, organization, etc.)?

Who is the intended audience for your comedy?

Give your group a score OUT of 4 in each of the following categories:

Collaboration Creativity	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We worked together as a group to produce our final project.• We used ideas we learned about classical comedy to inform our project.• We created our own ideas to form our project.	/4
Critical Thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We used past experiences, new information, and feedback to develop a school-appropriate project.	/4
Writing, Speaking, Representing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• We exchanged ideas to develop our final project.• We created our comedy to reach a specific audience.• We used language with purpose and intention to express specific ideas.• Our project is clear and easy to read, watch, or listen to.• Our project includes one characteristic found in Shakespeare's comedies.• We respected the work of other groups by listening during performances.	/4